GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

4. How to purchase

Purchasing does not require prior registration, but if you register as an HLBS member, it can facilitate future orders and makes you eligible for discounts.

- To select a product, click “add to cart”.
- Afterwards, you can choose to continue shopping and browsing, or to check the chosen products by clicking the shopping cart icon and then clicking “see my cart”. This way, you can see the selected products and their price, and you can adjust their quantity. Here, you have the possibility to empty your cart or to remove items individually.
- As you continue shopping and add new items, the total price of your purchase will be automatically updated.
- To remove items individually, click “Remove from cart”. You can only remove items (by going back to the cart) before you have submitted your order.
- If you are satisfied with the content of your cart and you no longer want to add more products to it, click Checkout to begin finalizing your order.
- On the checkout page, you can fill in a form to provide your delivery and billing details, and you can choose from the delivery methods (Pick Pack Point or home delivery to your doorstep) and the payment methods (Card, Bank transfer, Collect-on-delivery payment, or – for registered members – Weboffice + Mastercard and Visa; Weboffice + bank transfer; Weboffice + collect-on-delivery; Paypal).
- Registered members will see their data pre-filled with the previously provided details, but the billing and payment fields may be modified.

After selecting a payment method, we kindly ask you to read the following Terms and Conditions as well as the Data Handling Policy. To finish the purchase, check the box to declare that you accept these Terms and Conditions as binding; that you have read and understood the Data Handling Policy; and that you consent to your data being handled as described.

You can finish your purchase by clicking “Send”. Please note that finishing the purchase creates an obligation to pay. We will send the receipt for your purchase to the email address you provided.

After submitting the order, the system of the Provider sends an automatic email to confirm receiving the order. The email contains the order ID number, the name of the selected product(s), the amount to be paid, the selected payment method, and the personal details, billing and delivery address of the Customer. If this confirmation email fails to arrive to the Customer’s address within 48 hours of submitting the order, the Customer’s contractual obligation is unconditionally, automatically void, and the purchase is nullified. The Provider is not responsible for the failure of the confirmation to arrive if the reason of such failure is that the Customer has provided a wrong email address, or their corresponding mailbox is full and thus unable to receive messages.

In case of a bank transfer, the details required for the transfer will also be sent to the Customer by our system via email, as well as displaying it on the confirmation site / screen after a successful order.

In case of collect-on-delivery payment, the purchase price is to be paid upon delivery.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Before submitting your order, please make sure that everything is just as you require. If you happen to have mistakenly ordered something different from what you wanted, or the confirmation email has not arrived, please notify us immediately at support@hlbs.eu.

The Provider only accepts the order via the website if the Customer fills in all required fields in the ordering form. The Provider takes no responsibility for any delay in delivery or any other issues, faults or potential damages resulting from ordering details incorrectly or imprecisely entered by the Customer.

5. Correcting mistakes in the data entered

Before clicking “Send”, you can always correct any mistakes in the data by returning to the previous page or simply deleting / modifying the selected details or products.

You can always check, modify, or even delete the content of the “Cart”.

In our webshop, it is also possible to register. After login, you can modify the registration details and password any time in the “My account” menu.

If you would like to change anything after submitting your order, please let us know immediately at support@hlbs.eu

6. The product

You can find important details of the product on its information page available on the website or you can call our colleague to ask for a detailed description. Please note that the images on the information page of the product are for illustration purposes only. They can sometimes look different from reality.

Due to quick changes in our stock, it is possible that a product appears as “In Stock” despite being out of stock in reality. The Provider takes no responsibility for such errors, but informs the Customer as soon as the fact comes to light.

If you need any more information about any webshop product – its quality, its basic details, its use and usability – than what is available on the website, please feel free to contact us at the address, email, or phone number displayed in (1).

7. The purchase price

The purchase price is always the amount displayed next to the selected product – not including VAT. The purchase price does not include delivery fees. No packaging cost applies.

You can always see the total purchase price (complete with the delivery fee) before finalizing your order. You can see the delivery fees that apply under (8.3) of this document. No packaging cost applies.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Provider reserves the right to modify the purchase price of the products available for order from the website. The new price is valid as soon as it is displayed on the website. The price modification does not apply to the products already ordered at the time of the modification.

The delivery partner receives the assembled package after the purchase price of the products is transferred to the bank account or – in other cases – one workday after the order is confirmed.

The delivery company will attempt the delivery twice. If you ordered to a collection point, you can collect your order within 7 days.

9. Implied warranty and product warranty

(Based on Appendix III of Government Decree 45/2014 [26 Feb]: sample guide on implied warranty, product warranty, and guarantee.)

a.) Implied warranty

When can you assert your right to implied warranty?

In line with the Hungarian Civil Code, you can assert your right to implied warranty if the Provider provides faulty services to you.

What are your rights when you assert your implied warranty?

You can choose from the following implied warranty remedies:

You can request repair or replacement unless your request cannot be fulfilled or it would incur disproportionate costs on the Provider in comparison with your other remedy options. If you did not or could not request repair or replacement, you can request a proportionate reduction in compensation, or you can repair the fault yourself or have it repaired – at the Provider's expense – or as a last resort, you can request a full refund.

You can change over from one selected implied warranty right to another, but you must pay the cost of the change unless it was justified or a result of the Provider's actions.

What is the deadline of asserting your implied warranty rights?

You are obligated to report the fault immediately after discovering it, but within a maximum of two months from the discovery. Note, however, that your implied warranty rights expire 2 years after the fulfilment of the contract and therefore you can no longer assert them.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Who provides remedy in line with your implied warranty rights?

Your implied warranty rights must be observed and remedy must be offered by the Provider.

What are the other requirements for asserting your implied warranty rights?

Within 6 months from the fulfilment, there are no further requirements for requesting implied warranty remedy besides proving that the product was purchased from the Provider. After 6 months from the fulfilment, however, you must also prove that the fault that you have discovered already existed at the time of the fulfilment.

b.) Product warranty

When can you assert your right to product warranty?

As a consumer of a product, if you discover that the product is faulty, ¹you can choose from asserting your right described in a.) or your right to product warranty.

What are your rights when you assert product warranty?

In line with product warranty, you can only request the repair or replacement of the faulty product.

What is a faulty product?

A product is faulty if it fails to meet the quality standards that are valid at the time of its distribution or if it does not have the characteristics described by the manufacturer's manifesto.

What is the deadline of asserting your product warranty rights?

You can assert your product warranty rights within 2 years from the time when the manufacturer puts the product on the market. After 2 years, the warranty expires.

Who provides remedy in line with your product warranty rights and what are the requirements for asserting them?

Remedy must be provided by the manufacturer or the distributor of the product. In case of a product warranty claim, you must prove that the product is faulty.

¹Consumer: a natural person acting outside of their individual work or business activity to buy, order, receive, use, apply a product, or is the addressee of any commercial communication or offer related to the product.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

What are the exceptions relieving the manufacturer (distributor) of their product warranty obligations?

The manufacturer (distributor) is relieved of their product warranty obligations only if they can prove that

- they manufactured or distributed the product outside of their business activities or that
- the fault was – at the current state of scientific and technological research – not recognizable at the time when the product was released on the market or that
- the fault of the product results from complying with a compulsory official regulation.

The manufacturer (distributor) is relieved of their obligations if they can prove any one of these reasons.

How to assert your warranty claim:

Please note that you cannot assert an implied warranty claim and a product warranty claim at the same time due to the same fault. However, after successfully asserting your product warranty claim, you can also assert your implied warranty claim towards the manufacturer over the replaced product or the repaired part.

10. Right of withdrawal

(Based on Appendix I and II of Government Decree 45/2014 [26 Feb]: sample guide on Withdrawal/Termination)

When multiple products are delivered, the withdrawal deadline is 14 days from the time that you or a third party determined by you (not the messenger) has received the last product.

You can also withdraw from the purchase any time between the successful order (entering into the contract) and receiving the product.

11. Arbitration Board

As a consumer,³ you have the right to turn to the arbitration board. The goal of the arbitration board is to resolve a dispute between the consumer and the business regarding the quality or safety of the product, the application of product responsibility rules, the quality of the service, or the beginning and fulfilment of the contract between the parties outside of court. The board attempts to negotiate an agreement, and if it fails to do so, it makes a decision to foster the quick, practical, cost-efficient realization of consumer rights. The arbitration board procedure requires that the consumer attempts direct complaint resolution with the business in question. If direct resolution fails, the consumer or the business can petition the Arbitration Board. The procedure is conducted by the arbitration board with jurisdiction over the consumer's home address or residence. If there is no such board, the procedure is conducted by the arbitration board with jurisdiction over the Provider's seat. The consumer can request a certain arbitration board to conduct the procedure.

The business is obligated to cooperate with the board in the arbitration procedure.
